Indigenous Day of Prayer

THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

Stewardship Thought: ‘All my relations’ is the English equivalent of a phrase familiar to most Indigenous peoples. It is a reminder of the relationship with family, relatives and a web of kinship to animals, to the birds, to the fish, to the plants, to all the animate and inanimate forms.

Call to Worship: Rev. Dr. Bailey

Gathering Prayer for Indigenous Day Rev. Limongi

One: Creator, in love and through love, you have called all things into being. We thank you for mother earth, our home. We thank you for the heavens that watch over us and the starlight that warms and guides us. We thank you for all the plants — for those that are medicine, for those that nourish us, for those that express your delight through their beauty and diversity. We thank you for all of our fellow creatures; may we share this earth with them in respect, with reverence. We thank you for soil, water, fire, air; for forests, plains and mountains, deserts and tundra and oceans. And now, when so much of the world is threatened with destruction, help us to walk in humility, with gratitude, among all these sacred gifts from you.

We thank you for being a God of liberation, for you are ever seeking to bring us into the joy of your salvation; into a just, equitable, and holistic celebration of life.

We thank you for your compassion, which holds each and every one of us. We thank you for coming to us as Jesus, our teacher, brother, and friend — for dying on the cross and breaking the power of death in order to bring us back into harmony with you and all of Creation.

All: Creator, thank you for your truth and wisdom, and for inviting us to travel the healing path with you; we offer you our hearts and minds so that we might embody your grace and share your blessings with all who live upon the earth. Amen.

Call to Confession

Huda Kandalajt Kanawati

With the angry words we use, with the hurtful things we do to others, we are dishonouring the God we love and serve. So let us come in honesty, trusting in the One who comes to be with us and to save us. Let us pray together, saying:

Confessing Together:

Gracious and merciful God, we gather in the name of Jesus willing to acknowledge how we have at times missed the mark. We confess that it is not always easy to follow you. But deep down we long to do so. Your willingness to give yourself to the world inspires us, but also challenges us. God of love, we confess that too often we struggle to decide how we should give, whom we should help. The truth is, we can be judgemental at times; critical of those whom we think are not doing what we think they should be doing. Please forgive us, O God. We do not know all that others are going through. Forgive us when we look for reasons not to share, and excuse ourselves from acting generously.

With humble hearts we confess the times we have lost sight of who you are, and whom you call us to be. At times we fail to recognize your presence with us and your faithfulness to us, and so we end up focusing on our worries and concerns, leaving us feeling out of sorts.

O God, please remind us each day of the wonders that you are working in our lives and in our world. May you restore to us the simple joy of knowing and loving you and others, through the power of your resurrection. We ask this in the name of Christ Jesus, our Lord. Amen.

Children's Hymn: Come, Children, Join to Sing

VU #345

- 1 Come, children, join to sing: Hallelujah!
Praise to our Servant King: Hallelujah!
Let all with heart and voice,
saved by God's gracious choice,
now in this place rejoice: Hallelujah!
- 2 Come, lift your hearts on high: Hallelujah!
Let praises fill the sky: Hallelujah!
Christ calls his people friends,
the helpless he defends,
a love that never ends: Hallelujah!
- 3 Praise yet our Christ again: Hallelujah!
Raise high the joyous strain: Hallelujah!
The whole creation o'er let all God's love adore, singing for evermore: Hallelujah!

WE LISTEN FOR THE WORD OF GOD

First Lesson: Isaiah 65: 1-9

Wendy Bailey

Responsive Lesson: Psalm 22: 19 - 28

Rev. Limongi

One: But you, O Lord, do not be far away! O my help, come quickly to my aid!

Many: Deliver my soul from the sword, my life from the power of the dog!

One: Save me from the mouth of the lion! From the horns of the wild oxen you have rescued me.

Many: I will tell of your name to my brothers and sisters; in the midst of the congregation I will praise you:

One: You who fear the Lord, praise him! All you offspring of Jacob, glorify him; stand in awe of him, all you offspring of Israel!

Many: For he did not despise or abhor the affliction of the afflicted; he did not hide his face from me but heard when I cried to him.

One: From you comes my praise in the great congregation; my vows I will pay before those who fear him.

Many: The poor shall eat and be satisfied; those who seek him shall praise the Lord. May your hearts live forever!

One: All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord, and all the families of the nations shall worship before him.

Many: For dominion belongs to the Lord, and he rules over the nation.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Rev. Limongi

Our Father, who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and let us not fall into temptation, but deliver us from evil;
for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen

AND WE GO OUT TO BEAR JOYFUL WITNESS TO GOD

*Hymn:

O Day of God, Draw Nigh

VU #688

1 O day of God, draw nigh
in beauty and in power,
come with your timeless judgement now
to match our present hour.

2 Bring to our troubled minds,
uncertain and afraid,
the quiet of a steadfast faith,
calm of a call obeyed.

3 Bring justice to our land,
that all may dwell secure,
and finely build for days to come foundations that endure.

4 Bring to our world of strife
your sovereign word of peace, that war may haunt the earth no more
and desolation cease.

5 O day of God, draw nigh
as at creation's birth;
let there be light again, and set your judgements in the earth.
