As a community of Christ followers:

We acknowledge that the land on which we gather for worship is the traditional, unceded, unsurrendered territory of the Algonquin nation.

We are grateful for their stewardship of this territory for thousands of years. Parkdale United Church welcomes all. We support and celebrate diversity, inclusion and equity with regard to race, colour, ethnicity, national origin, gender, and sexuality.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

WE GATHER TO WORSHIP GOD

Stewardship Thought: “The joyful news that He is Risen does not change the contemporary world. Still before us lie work, discipline, sacrifice. But the fact of Easter gives us the spiritual power to do the work, accept the discipline and make the sacrifice.”

Responsive Call to Worship

One: Christ is Risen!

All: Christ is Risen indeed!

One: We come to worship today because Mary Magdalene once said:

All: “I have seen the Lord!”

One: We come to worship today because doubting Thomas finally cried:

All: “My Lord and my God.”

One: We come to worship today because the two disciples of Emmaus once recognized him in the breaking of the bread and rejoiced saying:

All: The Lord has risen indeed!

One: We come to worship today because Jesus still comes into our locked spaces and says:

All: “Peace be with you. Receive the Holy Spirit.”

One: We come to worship this morning because of Jesus, who asks us face-to-face:

All: “Do you believe? Do you truly love me?”

One: And we come today to whisper:

All: “Yes, Lord, you know that we believe, help thou our unbelief. Yes Lord, you know that we love you.”

One: let us then come in worship and in praise to our Risen Lord.

Prayer of Adoration and Confession

Faye Beaufort

Living and Loving God,
God of new beginning and God of new life,
we come to you, rejoicing in the mystery of the Risen Christ,
present always in our midst, even when we least expect him.
We marvel at your constant love,
your victory over evil and death,
and your resurrecting hope which embraces us in every circumstance.
Trusting in these gifts, we seek to live as Easter people in every place and time.

Strengthen us with the gift of your Holy Spirit in this time of worship,
and bless us with your peace through Christ, our Risen Lord.

Friends, even as we delight in the promise Of Easter, let us confess the ways we fail to live it out:

Confessing Together:

Merciful God,
we confess there are times when our trust in you weakens,
and we become anxious about many things.
We talk about love,
but we are gripped by fear,
We cling to our personal agendas,
and forget you call us to live as a community of believers.
Forgive us for seeking our own interests before the needs of our neighbours.

Open our eyes to the many signs of your love for us.
Inspire our minds to live like you and to see the world with your own eyes. In flame our hearts to love like you love.
Through the power of your Holy Spirit, rekindle our faith, so we can walk together as Easter people and be your witnesses in whatever we say and do.

Amen.

The Family Prayer (The Lord's Prayer)

Our Father, who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those
who trespass against us;
and let us not fall into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever and ever. Amen

Scripture Readings: Acts 3:12-19

Wendy McHenry

Responsive Lesson: Psalm 4

Answer me when I call to you, my righteous God.

Give me relief from my distress; have mercy on me and hear my prayer.

How long will you people turn my glory into shame?

How long will you love delusions and seek false gods?

Know that the LORD has set apart his faithful servant for himself; the LORD hears when I call to him.

Tremble and do not sin; when you are on your beds, search your hearts and be silent.

Offer the sacrifices of the righteous and trust in the LORD.

Many, LORD, are asking, “Who will bring us prosperity?”

Let the light of your face shine on us.

Fill my heart with joy when their grain and new wine abound.

In peace I will lie down and sleep,

for you alone, LORD, make me dwell in safety.

's of Faith

Question 30 answer: No. They continued to break the covenant and the law. The people hardened their hearts to the message of the prophets, rejected their summons and even acted violently against them. In a severe judgment, God handed them over to enemies who devastated the city of Jerusalem, destroyed the temple and took many of the people into exile in a foreign land.

Question 31. How then did God keep covenant with Israel?
The answer will be in our next Sunday's bulletin.

Here are some clues: Isa 40:1-2, Jer 31:31-33, Isa 53:5 .
